

All our pizzas are hand-opened and everything is made fresh to order. Items are delivered to the table when its ready, which means that some things will arrive at different times.

All of our paper goods, coffee supplies and take-out materials are 100% compostable.

Although the utmost care is taken, nuts are used in our kitchen. For allergen information on any item, please speak with your server.

A discretionary 12% service charge will be added to each bill. All service charges go to the wait and kitchen staff.

Our dough is cold fermented for 36 hours. Any pizza, except the London Fields, can be made into a calzone.
